Chief Neu to answer questions

Police Chief Gerald P. Neu will attend the City Council meeting tonight to answer further questions about his department's budget.

Two weeks ago, when Neu did not appear as council requested, Council President Jimmy Stier said any department head who did not heed a council request could be subpoenaed.

Council resubmitted a request to Mayor Robert E. Armstrong asking that Neu be sent to discuss a proposed transfer in the police department, and Armstrong has said Neu will attend tonight's meeting.

The memo did not list specific questions for Neu, Stier said, although John F. Gray Jr., city public information officer, was quoted as saying the communication did include questions.

Stier said such a statement appeared as if council were "conceding" to the mayor.

Gray said his statement was misinterpreted — that what he actually said was that the matters in question were listed and Neu would be sent to answer council's questions.
